HAPPY FATHER'S DAY TO ALL OUR DADS

Each of the three Masses offered this Sunday morning are being offered for all the fathers, living and deceased, whom you have named on the Father's Day Mass card envelopes that are available in the vestibule. (If you have not submitted one as yet, do so this morning, and your father and grandfathers will be included in the Mass intention anyway).

COFFEE AND DONUTS NOW BEING SERVED (SUNDAY AFTER MASSES)

A nice way to kick off your Father's Day is to enjoy our delicious coffee, hot chocolate and donuts downstairs in the church hall. While you are there, why not take a look at the parish library and select a nice spiritual reading book for the summer? There is a wide variety of topics, one of them ought to appeal to you: writings of Popes; lives of the Saints; biographies of notable Catholic men and women; topics of timely interest; the spiritual life, the history of the Church.

Or, go downstairs at your leisure and browse through the selection.

Just remember to return the book when you have finished it.

WHAT FATHER IS READING THIS SUMMER

When Harry Became Sally: A Response to the Transgender Movement

Ryan T. Anderson. Encounter Books. New York 2018

Pioneer Preists and Makeshift Altars: A History of the Catholic Church in the Thirteen Colonies. Fr. Charles Connor. EWTN Publishing 2017.

Scalia Speaks: Reflections on Law, Faith, and Life Well Lived. Antonin Scalia. Edited by Christopher Scalia and Edward Whelan.

Four Witnesses: The Early Church in Her Own Words. Rod Bennet

Excerpts from four of the earliest Church Fathers: St. Clement of Rome; St. Ipatius of Antioch; St. Justin Martyr and St. Irenaeus of Lyons.

Ignatius Press. 2002.

SUMMER IS HERE! WHY NOT MAKE IT TO ONE WEEKDAY MASS EACH WEEK?

With the number of students in the parish who attend Catholic school, one has to wonder why more are not at daily Mass, especially during the summer. The Holy Mass and the most Blessed Sacrament are the heart of our faith: or are they?
