PIE SALE THIS WEEKEND AFTER MASSES

The girls of Our Lady's Sodality offer you their delectable creations for your Thanksgiving table. Thank you for your support. They will be using the proceeds to benefit needy families in our parish.

NO RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION TUE. EVE: HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS: THU. 22 NOV. 9 AM FEAST OF ST. CECILIA

Our hearts should overflow with gratitude to the good God Who has blessed us all so abundantly. Please take this opportunity to thank God for all He has done for you!

SUNDAY, 25 NOV. SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING, SOLEMN ADORATION

An opportunity for us to show our faith in and love for Our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. Following the 11 AM Mass, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed on the Altar until 4 PM, when Vespers and Benediction will be celebrated.

Please come to the feet of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist to adore, thank and make atonement to Him for the many offences and sacrileges that are done to Him in our very troubled Church and times.

On the bulletin board you will find a sign-up list to take a half an hour period of adoration.

CHRISTMAS PLAY: SUN. 16 DEC. 1 PM

Our Lady's Sodality is looking for children from pre-K through 4th grade to put on a very simple Christmas play. There will be two practices, one on 2 Dec. and 9 Dec. at 1 PM, and the play will be on 16 Dec. at 1 PM at Holy Cross Academy. If your child will participate, please put their name and grade level on the list on the bulletin board.

HUNTERS WHO MAY NOT HAVE GOTTEN A ST. HUBERT MEDAL

May come to the sacristy after Mass today to get one. St. Hubert and St. Eustace are the patrons of hunters. May they protect and guide you in the woods!

THE CROSS PROPERLY UNDERSTOOD

Years ago, an elderly woman came to see me. She was married to a miser who, when they were first married, made it known that it was “his money”. And so over the years, she was careful about spending his money. Her girlfriends took pity on her and bought her a new dress; after all, this was her cross, they thought.

However, Christ's cross gives life. What she was really doing was running away from the cross, and indulging her weak and fallen nature.

Her true cross would be to sit down with the miser and make it known, in a reasonable, responsible, and loving way, that since it was his house, his food, and his money, he could clean it, cook it and bank it because she had needs of her own and would be finding a way to support herself.

That's a denial of self that leads to life. The cross properly understood brings life out of death: in her case, death to the fear of her husband, death to her weakness. As a result, she would love herself more and love her husband properly, for love does not enable bad behavior. The cross gives life.
