ROSARY NOVENA FOR OUR NATION: 15 AUGUST-7 OCTOBER

With racial tensions and political differences dividing our nation all the more, we turn to the Mother of God to protect, preserve and restore our beloved nation. With the encouragement of His Eminence Raymond Cardinal Burke, American Catholics are making a 54 day Novena to our Blessed Mother. It is not too late to join this very urgent novena (even if you did not begin it on the Feast of the Assumption). You simply pray the Holy Rosary on your own each day: there is no church ceremony to attend.

MEETING WITH REP. CLAUDIA TENNEY TUE. 22 AUGUST 7 PM.

Our parishioners are invited to listen to Congresswoman Claudia Tenney address issues of concern to us and answer questions that you might have. We want to show our support for her pro-life and pro-religious freedom positions.

A WONDERFUL PIECE OF SPIRITUAL ADVICE TO HELP IN SO MANY SITUATIONS

In his wonderful little book, "A Journey with Jonah: The Spirituality of Bewilderment", Fr Paul Murray, OP offers this little gem, which holds the key to so many of the questions we are confronted with in our relationship to God: "The maxim of illusory religion runs: 'Fear not; trust in God and he will see that none of the things you fear will happen to you'; that of real religion, on the contrary is: 'Fear not: the things you fear are quite likely to happen to you, but they are nothing to be afraid of.'" (Actually, he is quoting from John Macmurray, "Persons in Relation", London, 1970, pg. 171).

DATING REMINDERS

1. The purpose of dating is to find the person you wish to marry, the one who will become the father or mother of your children. No matter what the culture tries to tell you, keep this always in mind and end a relationship if and as soon as you realize that this is not the person.
2. Never allow yourself to be alone in a closed room or parked car with your date. Your dorm room is your bedroom, and it is too easy to get carried away with your date. Find somewhere else to hang out.
3. Always plan to be active on a date. Have activities lined up so you don't find yourself in a position or situation of idleness. Offense is good defense. Think of activities that will provide growth in knowledge of God, each other and self.
4. Dress appropriately for the occasion, but always modestly. Don't tempt your date, or yourself, by dressing provocatively.
5. Alcohol can make it easy to give in to temptations, so be sure to avoid being in situations that you know will weaken your will.
6. Any actions that cause sexual arousal (and you know what they are) must be avoided, because they are mortally sinful. This includes forms of dancing designed to cause it Help one another be chaste.
7. Regardless of who pays for the date, no one owes anyone anything.
8. A peck, a quick kiss (mouths closed), a brief hug or holding hands are permissible: they are non-sexual expressions of affection.
9. Don't kid yourself. You are no different from anyone else. Don't count on your self-control. You are weak! You can't just "go so far".
10. The road to chastity is paved with prayer, frequent and fervent reception of the Most Blessed Sacrament, strong and tender devotion to the Mother of God and St. Joseph, and recourse to the Sacrament of Penance regularly.

Follow these reminders and help your date to understand them as well. The search for a spouse and courtship can be a joy. Do not become another manipulating, used or abused statistic. Follow these points, and you will be able to look your children in the eye when it comes time to guide them in their journey to marriage and family.

(These "Rules for Chaste Dating" were composed by Fr. C. John McCloskey, a priest of Opus Dei, who worked as a college chaplain at Princeton for a part of his priestly ministry).
