SOLEMN EXPOSITION, ADORATION, VESPERS AND BENEDICTION OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT

“We will not have this man reign over us”, was the cry of the crowd in the parable of Our Lord(Lk. 14:19) , and now is the cry of even many Catholics. On this Solemnity of Christ the King, we give Our Lord the adoration, homage and love that He is due as our King. We expose Our Eucharistic God on the altar throughout the afternoon for each one of us to renew our loyalty and devotion to Him and to make amends for all those who do not acknowledge His right to rule individuals, nations and governments.

Please, come to spend some time with Our Lord throughout the afternoon, ending with VESPERS AND BENEDICTION AT 4 PM.

The wonderful newly-ordained Fr. Matthew Walter of the Rochester Diocese will be our preacher.

COFFEE & DONUTS

Are being served downstairs after Mass this Sunday. Please go down and enjoy them and your fellow parishioners' company.

PIE SALE AND ADVENT WREATHES, CANDLES AND MORE

Our beautiful young women of the Sodality of Our Lady are offering their marvelous pies this weekend. Save yourself some work for Thanksgiving and help them with their works of charity! After the 11 AM Mass, the pies will be sold downstairs.

NO RELIGIOUS EDUCATION THIS TUE. 26 NOV. FOR EITHER CLASS.

DO YOU HAVE ENVELOPES?

We will be issuing new envelope sets to our parishioners during the month of December. If you do not have a set at present, and would like one, please print your first and last name on the list provided on the bulletin board. God bless you and thank you.

LAST CALL FOR TUITION ASSISTANCE

Please submit your request for tuition assistance by next Sunday, 1 December, if you have not done so yet. Application forms are on the table in the vestibule.

GOD BLESS YOU AND THANK YOU

To the beautiful couple who donated so generously to make up the difference for the March for Life Bus. They were so kind and generous to give well over the shortfall from our Walk-A-Thon. May God reward you.

AS CHRIST'S SUBJECTS

“In this prayer (the Lord's prayer), Christ has just spoken of the evil one, placing us on alert before the battle, reminding us of our enemy, and keeping us from negligence. Now He goes on to encourage us and raise our spirits by recognizing the King who leads us into the field, pointing to Him as the One Who is more powerful than all. Christ says, “For the kingdom, and the power and the glory are Yours”, (Mt. 6:13. Some texts of Scripture have this verse).

Doesn't it follow then, that if the kingdom belongs to God, we should fear no one? For no one can withstand Him or tear apart His empire. When Christ says, “The kingdom is Yours,” He shows us that even the enemy warring against us has been brought into subjection to God.

The Devil may seem to be still fighting against us, but God is only permitting it for now. After all, he's also among God's servants, though a corrupt and guilty one. He would not dare fight any of his fellow servants if he had not first received permission from above.

“The power is Yours,” Christ says. For this reason, no matter how many forms your weakness may take, you may still rightly be confident in the battle. You have the kind of Sovereign who's able to accomplish everything necessary that concerns you, and do it with ease.

“The glory is Yours.” Not only can God free you from the dangers you face: He can also make you glorious and outstanding in battle. His power is great and His glory is beyond telling—they are both limitless and never come to an end. See how He has in every way anointed you, His champion, and surrounded you with confidence?”

(St. John Chrysostom, Homily XIX on Matthew.
