Words of Wisdom from a Wise Man

Ven. Fulton J. Sheen

Conscience, Christ, and the gift of faith make evil men uneasy in their sin. They feel that if they could drive Christ from the earth, they would be free from “moral inhibitions”. They forget that it is their own nature and conscience that make them feel that way. Being unable to drive God from the heavens, they would drive his ambassadors from the earth. In a lesser sphere, that is why many men sneer at virtue...because it makes vice uncomfortable.

To love what is below the human is degradation; to love what is human for the sake of the human is mediocrity; to love the human for the sake of the Divine is enriching; to love the Divine for its own sake is sanctity.

He has mercy on those who fear Him, from generation to generation. Fear is here understood as filial, that is, a shrinking from hurting the one who is loved. Such is the fear a son has for his devoted father and the fear a Christian has of Christ. Fear is here related to love.

A man who makes himself a god must hide: otherwise, his false divinity will be unmasked.

Though the Son of Man expressed His federation with humanity, He was very careful to note that He was like man in all things save sin. But the consequences of sin were all His as the Son of Man. Hence the prayer to let the chalice pass; His endurance of hunger and thirst; His agony and bloody sweat.... He endured worry, anxiety, fear, pain, mental anguish, fever, hunger, thirst and agony during hours of His Passion-all these things were to inspire men to imitate the Son of Man. Nothing that was human was foreign to Him
