PILGRIMAGE TO SHRINES OF AURIESVILLE & FONDA THURSDAY 12 AUGUST LEAVE RECTORY PARKING LOT AT 8:30 AM.

As of this writing, there still are seats on our bus for the trip to the Shrine of Our Lady of the Martyrs in Auriesville and the Shrine of St. Kateri in Fonda. Please print your name and phone number on the sign-up list in the vestibule if you will go with us.

At 11 AM Father will offer a traditional Latin Mass for the Feast of St. Clare at the Auriesville Shrine. Lunch will follow, which you will have to bring, although they do have drinks for sale and some “snack” food. We will visit the Museum and the Ravine where St. Isaac Jogues buried his companion St. Rene Goupil.

We will then visit the Shrine of the Lily of the Mohawks in Fonda, en route home. We should be back in Verona by 6 PM.

PARISH PICNIC: SUNDAY 15 AUGUST 12 NOON RECTORY

This year, the Solemnity of Our Lady's Assumption into heaven will be marked by our annual parish picnic. You don't want to miss it: lots of wonderful food, good company, and fun games for the kids!!!

Please take a moment to put down how many in your party will be attending and make your food selection. We also need volunteers to help with the various aspects of the picnic. It all goes so smoothly.

We want to see you there!

TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, ONE MUST:

Be a baptized Catholic, of either the Latin rite or Eastern rite;

Believe all that the holy Catholic Church teaches in matters of faith and morals;

Be in the state of sanctifying grace: that is, have no mortal sins on one's soul that have not been confessed;

Fast from food and drink (except water) for one full hour prior to the reception of the most blessed Eucharist.

More Words of Wisdom

“Where there is no obedience, there is no virtue;
where there is no virtue, there is no good;
where there is no good, there is no love;
where there is no love, there is no God;
and where there is no God, there is no Paradise.”
(St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina)

“A sculptor who wishes to carve a figure out of a block uses his chisel, first cutting away great chunks of marble, then smaller pieces, until he finally reaches a point where only a brush of the hand is needed to reveal the figure. In the same way, the soul has to undergo tremendous mortifications at first, and then more refined detachments, until finally its Divine image is revealed. Because mortification is recognized as a practice of death, there is fittingly inscribed on the tomb of Duns Scotus, “Bis Mortus: Semel Sepultus (twice died, once buried). When we die to something, something comes alive within us. If we die to self, charity comes alive; if we die to pride, service comes alive; if we die to lust, reverence for personality comes alive; if we die to anger, love comes alive.”
(Ven. Fulton J. Sheen)

“There were only two classes of people who heard the cry of Christmas night: shepherds and wise men. Shepherds: those who know that they know nothing. Wise men: those who know they that do not know everything. Only the very simple and the very learned discovered God-never the man with only one book.”
(Ven. Fulton J. Sheen)

“We hate others and call it “zeal”: we flatter others because of what they can do for us and call it “love”; we lie to them and call it tact.”
(Ven. Fulton J. Sheen)

“America, it is said, is suffering from intolerance-it is not. It is suffering from tolerance. Tolerance of right and wrong, truth and error, virtue and evil, Christ and chaos. Our country is not nearly so overrun with the bigoted as it is overrun with the broadminded.”
(Ven. Fulton J. Sheen)
