Keep your Rosary always close at hand, so that you can pray it at those moments when you find yourself free, and enjoy the protection of Our Lady. Special thanks to Megan and Michelle Vanderhoof for all their work in serving refreshments.

A HEART-WARMING TURNOUT FOR THE MEGAN ROBERTS BENEFIT

OUR SODALITY GIRLS APPEAL TO YOUR GENEROSITY

They will be making a pilgrimage to the Motherhouse of the Parish Visitors of Mary Immaculate (Sisters) in November. Next weekend they ask for your donations to help with the cost of the vans they will rent for the trip. God bless you and thank you.

AN AMAZING COINCIDENCE

Last weekend, after telling the story of the Chinese girl who was killed for receiving the Blessed Sacrament Which had been thrown down on the ground by the Communists, I received an email from one of our parishioners. She told me that the priest in the account, who had been placed under house arrest, and could only watch the girl from his rectory-prison, was her great uncle! His name was Fr. John Baptist Palm, and he was the brother of her grandmother. She said that the story was very familiar to the members of her family. He had been ordained a priest in 1941, and entered the Jesuits in 1944, so that he could join the Jesuit China Mission. He went to China in 1948, and was stationed at Christ the King Church. He was arrested on 15 June 1953, and expelled from Shanghai on 26 July 1953, and that day, prior to leaving, he was allowed to bury the Chinese girl who had so reverently consumed the Sacred Hosts on the ground outside the church. He went from there to Taiwan, where he served at Sacred Heart Church in Hsinchu until 2003. Finally, he was brought to the Sacred Heart Jesuit Center in California in 2004, and he died on 8 September 2008.

HELPERS NEEDED

A parishioner of ours is looking for someone who will prepare a very simple breakfast for him each morning (around 11 AM). The parishioner is disabled, and is willing to pay for this service.

He also would like someone to drive him to the YMCA in Oneida, leave him off there, and return 4 hours later to bring him home. Again, he will pay for this service.

If anyone is interested in the positions, please speak to Father.

Prayer for the Triumph of the Catholic Faith

by His Excellency, Bishop Athanasius Schneider
Auxiliary Bishop of St. Mary in Astana

Almighty and eternal God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we kneel before Your Majesty and thank You from the depth of our soul for the inestimable gift of the Catholic Faith, which you have deigned to reveal to us through Jesus Christ, True God and True Man. We received this divine light in baptism and have promised You to keep this faith inviolate until death.

Increase in us Your gift of the Catholic Faith. By Your grace, may it be strengthened and made unshakeable. Daily increase in us the understanding of the beauty and profoundness of the Catholic faith, that we may live in the deep joy of Your divine truth and be ready to sacrifice all things rather than compromise on or betray this faith. Grant us the grace to be resolved to undergo a thousand deaths for even one article of the Creed.

Graciously receive our act of humble reparation for all the sins committed against the Catholic Faith in the laity and clergy, especially the high-ranking clergy who, contrary to the solemn promise made at their Ordination to be teachers and defenders of the integrity of the Catholic Faith, have become champions of heresy, poisoning the flock entrusted to them and gravely offending the Divine Majesty of Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Truth.

Grant us the grace to see all the events of our life, and the immense trials our Holy Mother Church is now undergoing, in the supernatural light of faith. May we believe that You will cause to arise from today's vast spiritual desert a renewed flourishing of faith that will adorn the garden of the Church with new works of faith and give rise to a new age of faith.

We firmly believe that the Catholic Faith is the one true faith and religion, which you invite every person freely to embrace. Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the destroyer of all heresies, and the great Martyrs and Confessors of the faith, may the Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Faith triumph again in the Church and in the world, so that no soul may be lost but rather come to the knowledge of Jesus Christ, the only Saviour of mankind, and through a right faith and righteous life attain eternal beatitude in You, O Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. To You be given all honor and glory forever. Amen.
